

Boston, Mch. 17th 1861.

Dear Mr. May,

Inclosed is your letter from Burleigh, which I should have handed you before you left town, had not circumstances prevented. I suppose you have left the first part of B's manuscript with the printer. If any other part arrives, & if on reading it with Phillips & Garrison nothing appears requiring attention, and if I do not hear from you to the contrary, I will also pass such possible instalment of ^{new} matter to Mr. Prentiss; and, as the London boys say - I wish we may get it!

I will confer with Heywood, as you suggest, about the preservation of tracts and pamphlets which we have in charge; and I shall be able to contribute some useful things from my store of old pamphlets.

Mr. Manning preached a very good sermon this morning before the 28th Cong. Loc., & Garrison complimented him upon it thereafter.

If you see the Independent, you may find some very Parkerish looking matter in H. W. Beecher's sermon there last week. The Boston Review (Parsons Cooke's Magazine) has already devoted an article to complaints of "Henry Ward Beecher's Theology."

In the hope that your health is improving this winter, & with kind regards to Mrs. May, I am

Yours sincerely

C. K. Whipple.

Ms B.1.6 v.8. p. 48